Deacon Ministry Assessment by Clergy

To be completed by the deacon.

While the Clergy Self-Assessment, Senior Pastor Assessment, and the S/PPRC Assessment are an important part of the evaluation process, they are meant to be a springboard to the Clergy, Senior Pastor and S/PPRC Discussion Guide. Please focus your time and effort to have a meaningful discussion as you work through the questions on this part of the Assessment.

Two of the duties of the Staff/Pastor-Parish Relations Committee are (1) "to confer with and counsel the pastor(s) and staff on the matters pertaining to the effectiveness of ministry; relationships with the congregation; the pastor's health and self-care, conditions that may impede the effectiveness of ministry; and to interpret the nature and function of the ministry" and (2) "to provide evaluation at least annually for the use of the pastor(s) and staff in an ongoing effective ministry and for identifying continuing educational needs and plans."

(¶258.2g3&5, 2016 Book of Discipline)

Thus, this instrument begins with an assessment of how the local church is fulfilling her mission. Then, you are asked to assess how effectively you are leading the church in fulfillment of that same mission.

Congregational Assessment

1. The mission of a local church is to follow Jesus, make disciples, and transform lives and communities. In what ways is your congregation fulfilling that mission and becoming a more vital and healthy church

6. Marks in this next section should cover the spectrum from 1-10. The typical clergy will receive most marks in the “Meets Expectations Range” (4-6). The exceptional clergy will receive ratings in “Exceeds Expectations Range (7-8). Ratings of 9 or 10 should be reserved for superior skills and performance. Marks from 1-3 indicate to a clergy areas for improvement. Responses which use only one column will invalidate the form and render a disservice to the pastor. All strong clergy have areas where growth would be helpful; all weaker or inexperienced clergy are strong somewhere.

Outstanding – Highest level of performance; this rating is given to a clergy who consistently does far more than expected for the position. Numerous objective examples that support the rating are easily identified. (9-10)

Exceeds Expectations – This rating is given to a clergy who consistently does more than expected for the position. Rating should be easily supported by several objective examples of going beyond job requirements. (7-8)

Meets Expectations – This rating is given to a clergy who has consistently and fully satisfied the performance expectations for a deacon as outlined in ¶329 of the 2016 Book of Discipline and his/her particular job description. (4-6)

Improvement Needed – This rating is given to a clergy who did not consistently meet performance expectations of ¶329 of the 2016 Book of Discipline and his/her particular job description. (1-3)
